AUSTRALIAN ITEMS.

The news from Australia are generally pretty old by the time they reach us. It is very seldom that we receive a mail direct from there-generally going to San Francisco first, and "in the course of human events" coming here from four to five months after the date of the papers. As it not unfrequently happens, however, that vessels from Australia (Sydney or Melbourne) for San Francisco do touch here for water or provisions, we hope that our friends and exchanges in either of those Australian cities would see to it that papers were forwarded expressly to this place whenever such opportunity offers.

The Early Bird, which left Sydney Nov. 12th last, had neither mail nor papers for this port, where she touched in January, en route for San Francisco. The last mail from the last named city, however, brought us a file of Australian dates, ranging from the beginning of July last to October 31st, twelve days before the sailing of the Early Bird. From the above file we gather the following :

In regard to the New Zealand gold diggings we clip the following, premising that up to October 2d there had left for the gold diggings, from Melbourne alone, 11,225 passengers, in 62 vessels, and the following week over 300 left Sydney at one time for the New Zealand gold fields:

"THE PUAPERA GOLD FIELDS .- By the Rangatira we have papers to the 18th inst. from Otago. The Colonist of that date says: Gabriel's Gully is still the favorite spot, and the ground has been taken up far outside the limits where gold would be looked for under ordinary circumstances. The consequence is, though some get gold where they really hardly expect it, many are disappointed with "rank shicers." Of ground lately opened, the rises in the sides of the gully have turned out best. The earlier holders of claims find their ground as good as ever, and we may look for some time to considerable quantities of the precious metal from Gabriel's Gully. After the claims are partially left, the ground will no doubt be taken up for puddling and tempted. A party of six miners arrived in Dunedin a fortnight ago. Discouraged by the reports they heard, instead of all going to the diggings, they deputed one of just returned, and his account is sufficiently cheering to induce his mates to fully equip themselves with He considers one-third of the miners are doing firstrate, the remainder he gradates from 'pretty fair' to nothing at all.' One party of miners has been named to us who, after being on Gabriel's only a week, have a list of the British, American and French ships of war come upon 'very good gold.' There is a rush four in the Pacific at present, with their class, guns, ton-miles from the upper end of Gabriel's, at which some nage and horse-power, and which will be interesting to are said to be doing well. Beyond that again, amongst the Natty Ranges (we believe that is the name), are diggings, but we have only the rumor as yet to rely on. The sinking is said to be fifteen feet,

"The population of Waitahuna and the Woolshed is considerably on the increase. Some of the claims are turning out very well. One belonging to an Inglewood party is yielding 12 ozs. per day. Another, known as the 'Cornishmen's,' keeps seven men employed, and yields 'first-rate.' In the rises flanking the flat gold s found, and many of these rises have been rushed. One man of a party of eight returned from Waitahuna lescribed his mates as having sunk three holes on an eighty feet claim, all of which 'struck' stuff that would average & dwt. to the tin dish. Ten miles from the Waitahuna, but extending towards it, is a new diggings, called the Woolshed. Gold is found along the creek sides, and about two hundred men have 'set in' there. It is premature to express an opinion on its capabilities, but we may mention that one party sold 14 ozs. from there. A great deal of disorder is making its appearance at Waitahuna. Fights are of frequent occurrence, as also tent robberies. One case of 'sticking up' is reported. The diggers suffer great inconvenience from having to go a long way in search of fuel. They generally lay in a stock on Sunday to last them the week out. Others pass 'the day of rest' in hunting and shooting wild pigs. Meat is described as excessively scarce and dear."—S. M. Herald, Oct. 26.

The Geelong Advertiser says: "Several Geelongites have returned in the Lightning, and give a woful ac-count of the state of affairs at Donedin, Tuapeka, and the line of route between these two points. Some of the returned never got further than Dunedin, but others gave the diggings a fair trial, and could not make enough to keep body and soul together. Minute specs of gold could be found almost anywhere, but the result of a hard day's work would not buy a plug of tobacco. All the vessels now on the way bring considerable numbers of passengers-in fact it would appear that all who can come back are coming."

THE WHALING BARK SUPERIOR-RESCUE OF SOME OF HER MEN .- It will be in the recollection of our readers that about twelve months ago a report reached Sydney of the loss of the American whaler Superior at Treasury Island, where the crew were nearly all killed and the ship burnt by the natives. The Rebecca, then fitting out for the Island trade, under the command of Captain Develin, received instructions from the American Consul to proceed to the island and endeavor to rescue three of the Superior's crew, reported to be still alive in the hands of the natives, and most successfully has Captain Develin carried out his very difficult task. The Rebecca arrived at Treasury Island on the 30th March, and as is usual the natives gathered round the vessel, and the principal chief, named Copan, together with his son, came on board; but he had no scener got into the cabin than Captain Develin secured him, and at once demanded the liberation of the seamen. The chief stated that two of the men had left the island, having made their escape by taking a cance and reaching in safety a whaler that was on the coast, but that he would give up the other, sending word on shore for that purpose; and about noon he came off in a whaleboat belonging to the Superior. His name is Powlin (a Portuguese), and he confirmed the chief's statement respecting the escape of his two companions. Several articles belonging to the unfortunate ship were also obtained by barter, and together with the boat have been brought on to Sydney. Previous to touching at Treasury Island, Captain Develin called off Strathan's Island, on the 29th March, where he learned from a native named Billy that three vessels and a cutter had been taken by the natives of Treasury Island; the cutter was doubtless the Iris, supposed to have been lost at sea. The Rebecca was at Roubiana on the 7th of March, where it was reported by a man named Mortimer, in the employ of Captain Develin, who resides on the island for the purpose of trade, that the day previous the second mate and boat's crew from an Ameriif not already removed, on or before the 1st day of May next.

Honolulu, May 10, 1859.

The undersigned beg to inform their friends. Develin with some difficulty obtained the boat, which he has also brought on to Sydney. Great praise is decidedly due to Captain Develin for the very able manuer in which he has fulfilled his mission. It is well known that the natives of these islands never restore a white man to liberty unless some stratagem is used, but Captain Develin's thorough knowledge of the native character enables him to outwit the cunning of these savage tribes, and thus rescue an unfortunate fellowcreature from a fate worse than death .- Idem, Oct. 12.

CAPT. WM. H. HAYES .- (Is that the W. H. Hayes who was here in the British ship Orestes, some two years ago, an adventure of whom in the brig Ellenita, on Maui, and subsequent shipwreck on the South Pacific we have heard reported?) has been heard from in Java. The Batavia Prices Current of August 31 has the following:

" Captain W. H. Hayes, of the bark Launceston, on being ordered to proceed from Indramayoe to Cheribon, to discharge and receive his freight as before advised, appears to have gone off altogether, as the ship is no longer either at Indramayoe or Cheribon. He has received of his agents £500, and his cargo is worth about $100,000, $60,000 of which only is insured."

The China Overland Mail speaking of this affair,

"In our last issue we published a circular letter from the Batavia underwriters regarding a Captain Haves, of the ship Launceston, who had lately visited Java, and who, after having been chartered, was supposed to be a great scoundrel who has for some years made a tight rope of the law, whose powers seem quite inadequate to apply a slack rope to him. We do not say that Captain Hayes of the Launceston is the unmitigated scoundrel of the same name above referred to, yet we do say that he not only appears to enjoy the honor of being taken for him, but actually makes capi-tal out of the conclusion thus arrived at. It therefore matters very little for the purposes of our argument whether Captain Hayes of the Launceston be the notorious Captain Hayes or not." NEW SHOALS IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC.-H. B. M. ship Pelorus reports having passed over a shoal in 22 deg. 55 min. 15 sec. S.; 176 deg. 27 min. 50 sec.
